Maggie Lee

Music Videos

Opening: 8th September 2018, 5-8PM

Exhibition runs: 9th September – 29th October 2018

you come into a room

and are moving room to room

because of sound

when you want to leave one room, you can. and you can go into another

and be

reborn

This is the best part.

you can sip if you want to

but you can also just hold an empty cup

and move room to room.

On two TV sculptures, Maggie Lee presents music videos.

The visuals are set to the music of Galcher Lustwerk and Miho Hatori's New Optimism. They play concurrently.

There is a stamp for entry.

On the wall, a framed body-- an image of a birth, twins built of disco ball parts.

And, finally, a cup from a venue.

In the gallery's office, a concoction of magnesium powder and glitter crystalline is adhered to paper.
