

Arundhati Misha ii

ASYMMETRIC GRIEF

July, 2015

RAISA KABIR

JENNIFER MEHIGAN

BHENJI RA + JUSTIN SHOULDER

ADAM SAAD

CURATED BY BINGHAO WONG

OPENING 17TH JULY, 6-9PM

EXHIBITION RUNS 18TH – 25TH JULY, THURSDAY – SUNDAY, 12-5PM

The end of the horizon is upon us. The moralism of a universal queer condition cannot persist while bodies of difference are systemically devalued and delegitimised. Insisting on grounding these imaginary exhortations, Asymmetric Grief contradictorily attempts to consolidate utopia, acknowledging failure, futility, and finitude as necessary ambivalences within a broader queer phantasmagoria. Flaws puncture fantasies. Disappointment exists alongside possibility. Visceral trauma deflates and debases lofty uniformity.

Read full text by Binghao Wong here.